

Write the answers in the “answer” section to discover the mystery word for each exhibit area.

Dynamic Earth

Questions:

1. Standing and moving water powers are among the most powerful _____ that shape the earth.
2. Volcano _____ are a sure sign that the earth's crust continues to move, building mountains and blowing them apart.
3. Meteors create the image of a “_____ star.”
4. Without the sun there would be no warmth, _____ pull, and life on earth.
5. Tornadoes are small _____ that create powerful winds.

Answers:

1. _____
2. _____
S
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

What is the mystery word in the Dynamic Earth Hall? _____

Sand to Cedars and Attack & Defense

Questions:

1. Predators keep disease down by not letting the _____ get over populated.
2. Mussels are water quality _____.
3. The slaughter of the bison will always be known as the symbol of _____.
4. If the wolf is the predator, then the elk is the _____.
5. In limestone woods, the green salamander is _____ by green lichen like markings.
6. The class of the grizzly bear is _____.
7. The wolf was almost brought to _____ by humans, but today they are considered to be “threatened.”

Answers:

1. _____
2. _____
O
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
T
7. _____
N

What is the mystery word in the Sands to Cedars Hall? _____

Designs for living (Bird Hall)

Questions:

1. Turkey feet are designed for scratching and _____.
2. The heron, a sea bird, has a pointed _____ for water prey.
3. Snowy owls will winter as far south as _____.
4. The Carolina parakeet was led to extinction because of its _____ of fruit and garden crops.
5. The dodo bird, which is _____, lived in the Mascarene Islands.
6. America's largest bird is the California _____.

Answers:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

What is the mystery word for the Designs for Living Hall? _____

Adaptations to Environment (Africa)

Questions:

1. This vanishing animal, unlike the lion or cheetah, hunts in dense brush, forest greenery, and rocky cliffs.
2. The black rhinoceros is considered to be Africa's most _____ species.
3. Shelter, clothing, and unique body build help the people in Africa to _____ the heat.
4. The weeping love _____ is well suited for the environment, is a nutritious supplement and grows back quickly after fire and does not die during floods.
5. This poisonous arrow point was used by a Somali _____ to kill elephants.
6. Termites are adapted in body and behavior to a _____ way of life.
7. Once destroyed, the rain forest cannot _____ itself.
8. Scavengers, such as the hyena, quickly arrive to badger the _____ for a share of the feast.

Answers:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____

What is the mystery word for the Adaptations to the Environment Hall?
